

Spring Review

Children

Offering each child time for free creative play.

Offering each child time to explore open ended and planned activities to the extent of their interest.

Offering each child time to relate to other children and adults.

Providing opportunities for children to develop key social skills in cooperation, sharing, and friendship with other children of their own age.

Providing opportunities for children to express themselves through music, dance, dramatic play, and art.

Providing opportunities for children to expand their horizons through gardening, cooking, carpentry, writing, and games.

Parents

Educating, encouraging, and helping parents to understand the feelings, abilities, and limitations of the preschool child through discussion, observation, and active participation in the preschool environment.